

Mandy Harvey

Mandy Harvey overcame a debilitating disease affecting her hearing resulting in her giving up her music education but with her faith and the love of her husband and family she overcame the debilitating disease and began a blessed musical career. She has won:

VSA’s International Young Soloist Award* and has performed at the Kennedy Center.

She came in 5th on America’s Got Talent and was given the Golden Buzzer by Simon Cowell. Simon ranks it among the 15 greatest Golden Buzzer moments.

Mandy’s career took off after her finish as a finalist on America’s Got Talent and was in high demand world-wide. She has authored a Memoir entitled Sensing the Rythym : finding her voice in a world without sound, which follows her journey and underscores the role her Christian Faith played in her ability to continue her singing career despite being deaf.

A preacher’s daughter and a strong woman of faith Mandy has performed at numerous Christian churches and at numerous prayer breakfasts throughout America. The Hillsong and Real-Life Worship centers are but two of the venues at which she has performed. These can be found on Google and U Tube.

Her message emphasizes the importance of her faith in her journey from promising Music student to despair at seeing her life’s dream disintegrate in almost an instant.

Her gripping and inspiring testimony is only surpassed by her amazing talent. It literally is like hearing an angel sing and play the Ukulele.
